WHAT IS HABAWABA?

HaBaWaBa is an English acronym meaning “Happy Baby Water Ball”, symbolizing the joy of a child practicing “the sport that is played with the ball in the water”.

The tournament was created by the non-profit Waterpolo Development and was organized for the first time in 2008.

So far, it has been held up to 10 times in Italy, with editions also in Greece and North America

The HaBaWaBa is the most relevant water polo tournament and visibility among children of formative categories (10U and 12U) worldwide.

The event will be held in Spain by the Royal Spanish Swimming Federation, which has awarded the Barcelona International Water Polo Academy (BIWPA) to organize the HaBaWaBa Spain in Barcelona, within the framework of the 33rd European Water Polo Championships 2018.

MISSION AND VALUES

- » Let the children, apart from enjoying a team sport, have a good time in and out of the water.
- » Encourage inclusion and respect through sport.
- » Although the undisputed protagonists are children, relatives, fans and coaches are also an important part of the event.

EUROPEAN IN BARCELONA

The 1st edition of the HaBaWaBa Spain 2018 will be held in Barcelona coinciding with the 33rd European Championships LEN de Water-polo (14-28 July). Barcelona and Montjuïc will become the epicenter of European water polo.

INDIVIDUAL PARTICIPATION

HaBaWaBa Spain is a water polo festival that welcomes players from all over the world. For that reason, the kids that want to participate in HaBaWaBa Spain separately, if their club can't go, will have the same opportunity to participate. Our technical team will be in charge of assigning individual participants with a club that needs players, taking into account the necessity and level of the team.

PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS

- » Individual participants will have to come with their parents or legal guardians.
- » Individual participants will need to fit into either U12 (2006/2007 +) o U10 (2008+).
- » Participants must arrive on the 17th of July 2018, because participants may have their first game on July 18th at 9am.
- » Each individual participant that comes to HaBaWaBa Spain will need to fill out a inscription form.

INSTALLATIONS

Located at the mythical Montjuic Mountain, The Municipal pool was renovated to host the 1992 Olympic Games held in Barcelona.

The pool is located only 10 minutes away from the Bernat Picornell Pool, where the European Championship is held.
