SPAIN 2019 JULY 1-6 HABAWABA

WHAT HABAWABA IS?

HaBaWaBa is an English acronym that stands for “Happy Baby Water Ball” symbolizing the joy of a child practicing “the sport that is played with the ball in the water”.

The Festival was created by the non-profit association Waterpolo Development and was organized for the first time in 2008. So far, it has been held 11 times in Italy, with editions also in Greece and North America.

The HaBaWaBa is the most important and visible water polo tournament among children of training categories worldwide.

After a successful first edition in Barcelona, the Royal Spanish Swimming Federation (RFEN) organizes again the HaBaWaBa Spain. This second edition will take place in the CN Reus Ploms, including a day of fun in PortAventura Park for all the participants.

MISSION AND VALUES

- » Enjoy a team sport and have fun in and out of the water.
- » Promote fair play, inclusion, respect and coexistence between children of different cultures and backgrounds.
- » To achieve a working environment to promote water polo by bringing together children, coaches, family and fans.
- » Spread passion for water polo across the five countries and, along with it, the noble values of sport and co-existence.

VENUE

Reus (Tarragona) will host the second edition of the HaBaWaBa Spain. The Festival will take place in three different locations. The competition will be held at the Club Natació Reus Ploms. All participants will be accommodated at the Complex Educatiu de Tarragona residence hall, where also some of the animation activities will take place. And on July 5 all participants will enjoy a day at the theme park PortAventura Park.

SWIMMING POOL

The CN Reus Ploms is a sports club just 10 minutes away from downtown Reus. The centenary club has 15 different disciplines, four of which are aquatic. The matches will be played in the outdoor Olympic pool and also in one of the two 25m indoor pools on 5 or 6 playing fields. The club also has a multisport field, an athletics track, basketball court, tennis and paddle courts and a grass area available for animation activities.

RESIDENCE HALL

The participants will stay at the Complex Educatiu de Tarragona. The residence has sports facilities, green spaces, dining room with its own kitchen, swimming pool and free parking. An area will be reserved for the organization of recreational activities.
